Rifle & Pistol Association To File Notice To Sue State On Gun Law - The state Rifle and Pistol Association today is set to file a notice of claim over the state's new gun-control law, the first step toward a lawsuit over the measure. The group's executive director, Thomas King, confirmed to Gannett's Albany Bureau this morning that the notice would be filed today in Albany. The notice of claim would give the group 90 days to file its lawsuit.
