1 such service, due to a service-connected disability, as determined by 2 such agency at or before the time of separation; and (d) (i) has not been 3 found by a qualified medical professional employed by such agency to be 4 unqualified for reasons relating to mental health; or (ii) has not 5 entered into an agreement with such agency from which the individual is 6 separating from service in which that individual acknowledges he or she 7 is not qualified for reasons relating to mental health; and (e) is not 8 otherwise prohibited by New York or federal law from possessing any 9 firearm.

10 § 2. Section 265.20 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdi-
11 vision e to read as follows:

12 e. Subdivision eight of section 265.02 and sections 265.36 and 265.37
13 of this chapter shall not apply to a qualified retired New York or 14 federal law enforcement officer as defined in subdivision twenty-five of 15 section 265.00 of this article, with respect to large capacity ammuni-
16 tion feeding devices issued to such officer or purchased by such officer 17 in the course of his or her official duties and owned by such officer at 18 the time of his or her retirement or comparable replacements for such 19 devices, if: (i) the agency that employed the officer qualified such 20 officer in the use of the weapon which accepts such device in accordance 21 with applicable state or federal standards for active duty law enforce-22 ment officers within twelve months prior to his or her retirement; and 23 (ii) such retired officer meets, at his or her own expense, such appli-24 cable standards for such weapon at least once within three years after 25 his or her retirement date and at least once every three years thereaft-26 er, provided, however, that any such qualified officer who has been 27 retired for eighteen months or more on the effective date of this subdivi-28 vision shall have eighteen months from such effective date to qualify in 29 the use of the weapon which accepts such large capacity ammunition feed-30 ing device according to the provisions of this subdivision, notwith-31 standing that such officer did not qualify within three years after his 32 or her retirement date, provided that such officer is otherwise quali-33 fied and maintains compliance with the provisions of this subdivision.

34 § 3. Subdivision 16-a of section 400.00 of the penal law is amended by 35 adding a new paragraph (a-1) to read as follows:

36 (a-1) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of paragraph (a) of 37 this subdivision, an owner of an assault weapon as defined in subdivi-38 sion twenty-two of section 265.00 of this chapter, who is a qualified 39 retired New York or federal law enforcement officer as defined in subdivi-40 vision twenty-five of section 265.00 of this chapter, where such weapon 41 was issued to or purchased by such officer prior to retirement and in 42 the course of his or her official duties, and for which such officer was 43 qualified by the agency that employed such officer within twelve months 44 prior to his or her retirement, must register such weapon within sixty 45 days of retirement.

46 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 47 section three of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the 48 same manner as section 48 of chapter 1 of the laws of 2013 takes effect.
